YOUTH AMBASSADORS PROGRAMS

ARGENTINA/CHILE, March 19-30, 2020
CARIBBEAN, July 31-August 13, 2020

Will you host a Youth Ambassador?

The UVA Center for Politics is in search of host households for the Youth Ambassadors Program for Argentina and Chile March 19-30, 2020, and the Caribbean region July 31-August 13. The Argentina/Chile group will include 13 high school students and two adult mentors and the Caribbean group 18 high school students and two adult mentors. Program participants will be selected from thousands of applicants and while in Charlottesville will focus on enhancing their leadership and civic engagement skills.

Singles, senior citizens, recent graduates, households with children, couples without children…all may serve as a host! Would you host a Youth Ambassador?

Hosts are expected to:

- Provide a room with a bed (may share room with host sibling of same gender/age)
- Share in each other’s cultures
- Include the student in family activities and events
- Provide most breakfasts and dinners on weekdays and all meals on the weekends
- Provide transportation to UVA at beginning and pick-up at end of each day

If you would like to be a host or learn more about this opportunity, please contact Daman Irby at irby@virginia.edu or 434.243.8475.
